

Time left 0:59:47

Question 1

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

How can Quality of Life be used as a predictor of longevity?

- ☐ a. It cannot predict longevity
- ☐ b. By assessing an individual's emotional state
- ☐ c. Through self-report measures of health status
- ☐ d. By measuring mortality rates

Question 2

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

What does the stress-buffering hypothesis suggest about the role of social support in coping with stress?

- ☐ a. Social support directly causes stress reduction.
- ☐ b. Social support intensifies the impact of stress.
- ☐ c. Social support mediates the stress/illness link by buffering the individual from the stressor.
- ☐ d. Social support has no significant effect on stress or coping.

Question 3

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

The _____ views medical care as involving surgery, chemotherapy, medicine, and vaccinations.

- ☐ a. Biomedical model
- ☐ b. Biopsychosocial model
- ☐ c. Both A and B
- ☐ d. None of the above

Question 4

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

Health psychology stresses that there is much more _____ between individuals in terms of experiences of health and sickness.

- ☐ a. Similarity
- ☐ b. Predictability
- ☐ c. Variability
- ☐ d. Consistency

Question 5

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

Culture is only learned from family and friends.

- ☐ a. True
- ☐ b. False

Question 6

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

What does the self-regulatory model focus on in cancer patients?

- ☐ a. Body image counseling
- ☐ b. Fear reduction
- ☐ c. Cognitive adaptation
- ☐ d. Stress management

Question 7

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

The Health Belief Model (HBM) holds that individual behavior depends on beliefs about threats to well-being and the effectiveness of specific _____.

- ☐ a. Behaviors
- ☐ b. Attitudes
- ☐ c. Interventions
- ☐ d. Norms

Question 8

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

What challenges has the global health system faced over the past 30 years?

- ☐ a. Decreasing population
- ☐ b. Reduced urbanization
- ☐ c. Spread of infectious diseases
- ☐ d. Increasing population and urbanization, spread of chronic diseases, and more

Question 9

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

Simple self-report measures of health status that ask individuals to rate their own health have been shown to be good predictors of _____.

- ☐ a. happiness
- ☐ b. financial success
- ☐ c. mortality
- ☐ d. illness

Question 10

Not yet answered

Marked out of 1.00

Subjective health measures ask individuals to _____ their own health.

- ☐ a. ignore
- ☐ b. criticize
- ☐ c. rate
- ☐ d. hide